

Macha Vanilla

Our Buddha makes a soul-satisfying cup of Macha Vanilla tea.

Dunk Buddha. Once he dissolves into a cup of hot water, you will be rewarded with a special cup of Japanese Ceremonial Green Matcha tea. Sweet, creamy, Matcha has healthy antioxidants—much more than loose green tea. It has been reported to help with cholesterol and inflammation, too. Plus, it tastes heavenly! Can you say Y—U—U—U—M?

MCT Vanilla

Keto-Friendly Coffee with a French Vanilla Twist

Drop a bolt into hot water and poof! In an instant, you've turned plain water into Keto-friendly French vanilla coffee. Enjoy this delicious coffee, flavored with coconut oil and sweet Monk fruit as part of your Keto diet plan. Its sinfully rich French Vanilla flavor is positively addictive. Whether you are a Keto plan dieter or not, you're going to love it.

Pomegranate

A high-performing supplement for high-performing gamers

You're an active high-performance video gamer. Don't settle for an ordinary drink. Our Pomegranate supplement has active performance-enhancing ingredients that will rev you up during game after game. The vitamins, minerals, and antioxidants in Pomegranate are legendary for their performance-enhancing powers. It tastes so good; the energy boost you get seems like a bonus!

Mango Jasmine

Relax and Unwind with Flower Powered Jasmine

Had a rough day? Jasmine flowers are used for relaxation, to soothe nerves, reduce stress, and help people unwind so they can more easily fall asleep. Dissolve our lovely Jasmine flower in water to create a "chill out" herbal drink that will help you untense, relax and unwind. It's like a massage in a glass—if a massage could quench your thirst!

Warm Citro

Turns Sleepless Night Owls into Cheerful Morning Larks!

Do you feel restless at night? Dissolve our adorable Night Owl in hot water to create a relaxing beverage containing Melatonin, ginger, and lemon juice. Melatonin is a hormone that regulates sleep. It is available in pills and chewable version, but they won't taste nearly as warm and satisfying as our Warm Citro. Use it to relax, unwind, and regulate your sleep cycle, so you won't be grumpy and tired in the morning and restless at night.

Hot Chocolate

As if hot chocolate wasn't perfect enough!

Dunk our adorable teddy bear into a cup of hot milk to transform it into a steaming cup of delicious hot chocolate. Children love to dunk our cute little Teddy, and even adults who have outgrown their Teddy Bears love him, too. Chocolate is rich in antioxidants that are good for your heart, skin, and overall health. What a cute way to stay healthy!

Shield

Keep it fresh! Keep it healthy—with the Shield.

Protect your immune system so it can protect you better.

We've created a powerful blending of herbs, vitamins and minerals to keep your immune system revved up! Simply drop the Shield into a glass of water and watch it dissolve. In a few minutes, you've got a tasty drink that will quench your health and invigorate your body to keep it strong and healthy. Ditch the watery pre-made vitamin drinks.
